

ECHO COE: Long Term Care Series 2026

The ECHO Care of the Elderly (COE) Long Term Care (LTC) Series utilizes the “all teach, all learn” model of knowledge dissemination and capacity building to connect LTC team members with geriatric specialists for collaborative and case-based learning.

Why Join?

- ✓ New topics aligned with OH QIP Priorities
- ✓ Free CME credits
- ✓ MOH funded - no cost to participants

When & How?

- ✓ Tuesdays | October 13 – December 15, 2026
- ✓ 11:00am-12:15pm (EST)
- ✓ Zoom

2026 Theme & Session Topics

Oct 13 - 27

- Skin and Wound Care
- Acute Deterioration & ER Transfers
- Team Member Grief and Bereavement

Nov 3 - 17

- Dementia in LTC
- Responsive Behaviours
- Optimal use of Medications

Nov 24 – Dec 1

- End of Life & Palliative Care
- Falls and Bone Health in LTC

Dec 8 - 15

- Engaging Families and Resident Councils
- FLEX Session

Each ECHO session includes a short didactic presentation by a specialist on specific topics of interest relevant to care of the older adults, followed by cases presented by the learning partners. Feedback and recommendations are provided by the health resource team as well as other learning partners.

Who Should Attend?

Physicians, nurse practitioners, nurses, social workers, physiotherapists, occupational therapists, personal support workers, and all health care professionals working in Long Term Care in Ontario.

REGISTER NOW

echo@baycrest.org

North East Specialized
Geriatric Centre
Centre gériatrique
spécialisé du Nord-Est

ONTARIO
CLRI
Centres for Learning, Research & Innovation
in Long-Term Care
BAYCREST • BRUYÈRE • RIA

Learn with an interprofessional team of geriatric specialists. Share real-world cases. Improve outcomes for residents.